IEDC 2 DAY STARTUP BOOT CAMP

The IEDC Boot Camp at KMCT Innovation and Incubation Centre is an entrepreneurial program conducted by the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IEDC) in collaboration with KMCT Innovation and Incubation Centre. The boot camp is designed to provide aspiring entrepreneurs with hands-on training, mentorship, and resources to develop their innovative ideas into successful startups.

The boot camp typically includes a series of intensive workshops, seminars, and practical sessions focused on various aspects of entrepreneurship, including ideation, market research, business planning, funding strategies, marketing, and sales. Participants will have the opportunity to interact with experienced entrepreneurs, industry experts, and mentors who can guide them through the startup journey.

On 27 and 28 February 2022 KMCT COLLEGE OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCE has conducted a STARTUP BOOT CAMP in association with CARVE STARTUP LAB at KMCT INNOVATION AND INCUBATION CENTRE . 60 students from various institutes of KMCT were participated and present their ideas . It provides a supportive ecosystem where they can refine their business ideas, validate their market potential, and learn essential skills to navigate the challenges of starting a new business.
