COLLEGE OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

Affiliated to Kerala University of Health Sciences and approved by Govt. of Kerala

At KMCT College of Allied Health Sciences, we are deeply committed to upholding ethical values and principles that align with our mission and vision.

To ensure the highest standards of personal and professional conduct, we have implemented a comprehensive code of conduct. This code encompasses a range of guidelines, principles, rules, and values that all the members associated with our organization are expected to follow. These guidelines are not only socially acceptable but also align with our institutional standards, fostering a positive and inclusive environment. We have tailored separate code of conduct formats for different groups within our community, including the Principal, Students, faculties, Administrative staff, and Visitors. Each format clearly outlines the specific expectations and standards of behavior for their respective roles, ensuring a harmonious and respectful atmosphere throughout our institution.
